About Sauce

Sauce Spirits & Soundbar, features live music, a full bar, appetizers and entrees, and contemporary art with an opening reception to kick off each show. Exhibitions focus on local artists with occasional out-of-town artist spotlights.

About the Curator

Karen Kopacz (Design for the Arts) is the founder and director of Mental Contagion, an online arts and literature journal featuring work and interviews with national/international artists and writers since 2000. Karen is curator of Reconnect: Mobile Art Gallery, and has been a graphic and Web designer for over 12 years, working with artists and creative businesses of all types.

About the Events

Opening Reception

Entry to the reception is free to the public; beverages, food and appetizers are available at happy hour or non-happy hour prices, dependent on time of reception. Guests are invited to stay for an afterparty. A cover charge may apply for entertainment.

Timeline

Exhibitions are quarterly, generally lasting 3 months.

Installation

We know you have other commitments and will do our best to keep installation and de-installation dates and times in tact whenever possible. All artwork must be framed and ready to hang prior to installation. Artists are welcome, but not required, to assist with artwork hanging.

Marketing

Shows are promoted via Sauce Web site, press release, promo handouts, social media tools (FB and Twitter) and Sauce in-house calender.

Collectable Booklets

Limited-edition booklets are printed for each opening. Booklets include well-written informative bios or articles about participating artists and images of the artist and artwork. Designed to increase interest and awareness about artists and their work, collectable booklets are available for free at openings on a first-serve basis. Artists will receive at least one copy of the booklet and may reprint articles written by Karen with credit to Karen Kopacz and Design for the Arts.

Price Sheets

Price sheets with artwork dimensions and work title will accompany the booklet.

In the event that an incident is not covered by the policy, no liability is assumed by Design for the Arts, Karen Kopacz or Sauce employees or customers.
